WILSON.

From the Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

"Warrington" breaks the silence of his western vacation by telling the true story, in his own graphic way, of Senator Wilson's political career. He sets down nothing in realistic certainty, and we do not see that he omits anything essential for the sake of old friendship. The political blot on General Wilson's record is being severely a Know-Nothing, and as such aiding efficiently in the election of the Know-Nothing candidate for Governor, while he was himself the candidate of another party for the same office; and then seeking and taking his pay therefor by an election as United States Senator, and next directly turning with furious sincerity to break up the organization on which he had thus ridden into place. These are the bare facts of the case, and there is not much relief to it, unless it is relief as "Warrington" says, that he did not believe in the organization of its principles, that he thus used. Otherwise, his political record is more creditable. Consistent and persevering in general purpose, however, he is one of the most ineffectual of men in details or in motives. "Greely" has had much to say of late in the facility and frequency with which he will change, in obedience to the temporary phases of public opinion, or the impressions from the last strong man who has come in contact with him, in his advocacy or desertion of measures and in his votes upon the details of legislation. But if General Grant is to be President for another term there will be as much comfort on the whole, in knowing that Henry Wilson stands in the second place as there has been in the last in the thought of Schuyler Colfax's presence there.

An Important Suit.

For some time it has been rumored that a suit was in progress, or was about to be commenced, testing the liabilities of the present Railroad Company, for the loss of the property of the late State of Minnesota. We have watched the papers with great interest, with a view of ascertaining its truth, and getting some clue to the proceedings.

The Pioneer of the 23d gives it as follows:

A bill in equity has been filed in the United States Circuit Court, by Seth Chandler, Plaintiff, against the St. Paul and Sioux City Railroad Company, and the Southern Minnesota Railroad Company, to recover on the Minnesota State Railroad Bonds, that the plaintiff holds. The pleadings cover about 100 pages, and recite the various acts of Congress making said bonds, and the Legislature of the State of Minnesota, authorizing the issuing of the State Railroad Bonds, and asks that the defendants may account for the lands, mortgages, what bonds have been sold, and where and to whom, what lands are sold, and how much is still due on them, &c. &c. In short, the bill asks for a full disclosure, and that a receiver be appointed, to whom the defendants shall deliver up all notes, mortgages, contracts and other securities in their hands, given for the purchase money of said lands; and if the defendants have parted with the possession of any such securities, that they be compelled to account for the value of them, and to convey to the receiver all said lands not conveyed, and that the receiver sell such lands and convert the securities into money, and apply the proceeds to the liquidation of the interest accrued upon said State Railroad Bonds and the remainder to the liquidation of the principal thereof, and that an injunction be issued restraining the defendants during the pendency of the suit and until final decree from selling or conveying any more lands.

The cordial support that Carl Schurz is giving to the Cincinnati ticket astounds and amazes the opposition. Taking advantage of his illness shortly after that convention, the sundry organs had worked up for themselves the most agreeable fiction, and pictured the noble Senator as being hostile to his own work. To their intense disgust, he is now speaking for himself. He not only supports Greeley and Brown, but will take the stump, and everywhere endeavor to rally the honesty of the country to their support. The announcement is received by the gift taker's apologists with that facial expression of countenance one sees in the prisoner's box when the judge is passing sentence. The lamentations would be pitiable, if they were not comic.

The Democratic State Convention.

From the St. Paul Dispatch.

We feel strongly tempted to indulge in a little gush over the action of the Democratic State Convention on yesterday—not that we had expected anything material by different from the result, but because the sentiment of the Convention received the full and deserved expression that was given it, and because the tone of the Convention was so very far above that of ordinary assemblages for kindred purposes in this and other States.

It was fortunate the Judge Atwater undertook to doubt the expediency of binding the delegates of Baltimore by strict instructions. His doing so discovered the depth of conviction that impelled the Convention to state its wishes in the unmistakable words of the resolutions. There was no hesitancy about the proper course to pursue. Fresh from the people, the delegates were filled with the spirit of their constituents, and even a faint attempt to check its utterance brought it out in still rounder and more explicit declarations. Whatever other States may do, and whatever Baltimore may do, the Democracy of Minnesota on yesterday made for themselves a record that is worth more than a score of victories at the polls. They asked no bargains, sought no spoils, but frankly and cheerfully subordinated all their party predilections and propensities to the one necessity of bursting the rings that bind the Federal Administration in a network of corruption. That the Liberal Republicans of Minnesota will meet the Democracy in a similar spirit, there is no doubt, and the final success of a cause supported with such harmony and devotedness as the action of yesterday foreshadows will be as complete as it will be gratifying to every one in whom the corruption of the Grant party has created disgust.

Letter from Horace Greeley.

The Hartford (Conn.) Times publishes the following from a private letter to a gentleman in that city:

"I have no possible claim to Democratic support, and never made any. The Democrats will, of course, be governed by the consideration of their own interest. It is not now probable that they should be influenced in making their decision by any consideration personal to myself, and if they could, I do not desire it. Hence I have said nothing to any Democrat unless he first addressed me, and even then I have gone no further than to say that I should be elected I would treat all those who supported me alike, not asking whether they had been in the past Republicans or Democrats.

Yours,

"HORACE GREELEY."

It was entirely superfluous for the Yonerville, (N. C.) Republicans to ransack the names of Grant and Wilson. Gilding refined gold is sensible business compared with casting corruption upon them. Why, Grant's supply of that article alone ought to supply every marksman in the Old North State with rattlesnakes for a twelve-month.

It is noticeable that the least respectable elements of Southern Society are those which the radicals draw to their standard. Cowardly, thieving scoundrels like Settle; roughriding, prisoner-hanging guerrillas like Mosby, and unscrupulous importations from the North like Clayton constitute their whole array. The Ishmaelite Democrats are more degrees better in heart and principle, but rather crochety of head. They comprise Quixotic, impracticable fire-brands like Rob. Toombs; visionary, ten-column writing statesmen like Alex. Stephens; and college professors like Ewell. All the sensible, producing masses of the South seem to be for Greeley and the others are fast coming over.

The Emperor William has purchased the Caffarelli Palace in Rome for the sum of three hundred thousand dollars.

The Fourth.

Be on hand bright and early if you wish to witness one of the grandest Fourth of July celebrations, that has ever been held in Chaska. The "Concordia" have a glorious bill of fare for the occasion. Its length compels us to omit it from our columns. The Concordia and the Grand Army Post of this place join in the celebration.

Peter Iltis will also "sit" up the patriotism, at Ulmerville Grove and will give a grand ball in the evening.

LUMBER.—Henry Young, our active lumber dealer, is raising "red" generally. We chrouched a few weeks since, the arrival of one hundred thousand feet of lumber, and are again called upon this week to add another 110 feet, received by barges and the Minneapolis Road. Henry says that he is bound to have the most complete yard in the Minnesota Valley, and that he will not be undersold.

THE EXHIBITION.—In our last issue, we promised to speak more at length, regarding the late exhibition at the Academy. But as we were (fortunately) seated in the midst of a group of young ladies, who were rather inclined to be mischievous, our notes are not as copious as we would desire; therefore we cannot particularize—yet we would state that taken as a whole the entertainment was a credit to the management.

ITEMS.—To day we celebrate the "Glorious Fourth," and as "we" printers are "patriotic" the reading public will surely excuse us for going to press a little short of our usual allowance of reading matter.

—Christ Elder and Peter Iltis have built neat sidewalks along the front of their property.

—The shade trees set out by the Concordia around their hall are growing nicely, and will eventually make a beautiful park.

HAIL STORM.—A severe hail storm passed over a portion of our county last Saturday night, and in some places did serious damage to the growing crops. We had a very fine five acre field of corn that we proposed to "brag on" in this issue, but the hail has left it looking very much like a badly whipped rooster. Every blade is either cut entirely off or split up into fine strips. Shan't brag any, this week, on "that" field of corn.—Glencoe Register.

FARM MACHINERY.—Fred Wommer and Phillip Henk our Hardware Dealers are dealing extensively in farm machinery this season. We are informed that Reapers are selling in great numbers, the McCormick and the Woods taking the lead.

NEW BUILDING.—Peter Iltis new Store building 52 x 24, is up and enclosed, and is imposing in appearance. Peter will use it on the 4th as a dancing hall and after that, will probably rent it for a store. Peter makes it a point to build once a year.

NEW SALOON.—Chris Elder has moved into his new saloon which adjoins his residence. It is beautifully finished inside and is without doubt the handsomest place in town.

—If you want anything in the hardware line, call on F. Wommer. Also any sort of machinery.

Special Town Election.

The supervisors of the town of Chaska, have called a special session, to vote upon a proposition submitted by them to vote bonds of the town to the amount of $5,000, to aid in the purchase of the Court House building. The 8th day of July is set as the time of voting.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Kuchemester, residing near St. Bonifacius, Hennepin County, accidentally cut his foot last week, which entirely disabled him.

Dr. Richardson of this village was the attending surgeon, and reports him improving rapidly.

WANTED.—10,000 pounds of Ginseng Root. Will pay the highest price for green or dry root, in cash or goods.

W. G. BRIGGS, Shakopee Minn.

Carver Items.

Correspondence.

MOVING.—We have noticed that one of the "Ancient Landmarks" of Carver has been "moving" gradually back from Broadway during the last week, under the supervision of Charlie Bachman. We refer to the old Sargent building, built by Maj. J. A. Sargent in 1856 or 7. Mr. Gehl intends putting up a good brick in its place.

Complaining.—The farmers are complaining of too much rain. It will lodge the grain soon, and does corn no good.

Fair Day.—Last market day was not as largely attended as the previous one, owing to the very rainy weather and bad state of the roads. Stock sold very cheap. Good cows with calves not bringing more than $20 to $22.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.—There will be a meeting at the Church on next Sunday, for the purpose of organizing a Sabbath School, a good move and should be well attended.

NOISY.—We do wish these boys would be a little more orderly on the Sabbath, it is certainly disgraceful both to them, their parents and our town.

RAIL ROAD.—The iron is now laid as far as the farm of Lawrence Eichmuller about 4 miles from town, the H. & D. is gradually stretching westward, and will soon be western institution.

Pic-Nic.—The young folks had a picnic on Friday last after the close of the district school. Wm. Benson and Miss L. Davy had charge of the little ones, who enjoyed themselves hugely.

BERRIES.—Straw berries have been unusually plenty during the past two weeks, and selling at 15 to 20 cts per quart.

PERSONAL.—Rail Road officials were numerous in town last week, among whom we noticed Supt. C. H. Prior, chief engineer, Dodge and R. B. Langdon. They were out on an inspecting tour up the line.

Dr. R. H. Lewis and Wm. Glitschka, were up at Glencoe on Monday.

Dr. J. L. Wakefield of Shakopee made a professional visit to Carver on Friday last.

Christ Aekerman of Young America A. C. Lassen of Waconia, Pat. Colbert of Hancock, Caspar Kroeschmable and L. Streukens of Benton were in town last week, all enjoying their usual health.

Hon. Liberty Hall of the Glencoe Register passed through town on Wednesday last enroute for home.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

H. B. Strait, the Nominee.

The Republicans of this District, through their delegates, met in convention at Hastings on Tuesday last, and nominated Maj. Strait of Shakopee for Congressional honors.

The Convention was a very tame affair and very consistently nominated a tame candidate.

The Democratic Convention will be held at Shakopee on or about the 15th of August, and if the Democracy do their duty, will nominate Col. Baxter, who will sweep the Valley and district by 3,000 majority.

Description of Chester's Turn-out.

From the Home Journal.
Gen. Grant's turnout, as he drove from church yesterday, to the cottage presented to him by Tom Murphy and others, excited considerable attention. It is a high, four-wheeled drag, rather showily painted, highly finished and glossy—drawn by two spirited, sleek, oiled blooded pairs, matched in size and color to a hair. On the box were seated two Carolina-looking negroes, black as coal, dressed in white flannel coats and breeches, set off with gilt buttons. Inside, on the right of the vehicle, sits the candidate for further White House honors, with his full head closely trimmed, wearing a dark cloth suit, a very high and round-crowned straw hat, the inevitable cigar between his fingers, his small and oiled eyes seeming engaged in watching the blue smoke as it curls skyward. From a hasty glance at the Presidential equipage one gets the idea that the owner is not exactly of a quiet turn of mind, but is rather fond of attracting attention with show, glaud and glitter.

The Minneapolis Tribune has been engaged in bulling Grant stock at a fearful rate, for a month past, but Sunday morning it comes down thusly: "As far as we learn, Minneapolis is about the hottest Greeley led in the State, and however it may be, Minnesota is all right for Grant." We can name a score of other cities and towns in which the Greeley strength is stronger than in Minneapolis. A glance at the low fares of the office holders in this section would convince a slybody that Minnesota is not "all right for Grant."

Ex-Gov. Blair of Maryland.

The Liberal Republicans have received a strong reinforcement in the person of Ex-Gov. Austin Blair of Michigan. In a speech at Jackson, on Wednesday evening last, he formally cut loose from the Grantites, and advocated the election of Horace Greeley. The Detroit Tribune, a Grant paper, in an article on Gov. Blair's defection, states some of the causes thereof, as follows:

We have nothing but sincere sorrow to express over Gov. Blair's departure from the republican party. It is as true of him, as of Mr. Sumner, Mr. Trumbull, Gov. Palmer, Gen. J. D. Cox, and others of the "liberal" leaders, that the loss of men of such incorruptibility and well-earned influence is something that no party, however strong, can afford.

We take this occasion to enter again our emphatic protest against the proscriptive and domineering policy which is fast breaking up the republican party, and has already absolutely driven many of its ablest and proudest leaders into the opposition. It is alike foolish, outrageous and suicidal. It has already worked immense harm, and its capacity for evil is not yet fairly tested. We have denounced it heretofore and we denounce it again, and we can assure the men who are responsible for it that the day of reckoning is nearer at hand than they imagine.

The expenses of the executive department during the last two years of Johnson's administration were $12,856,220, and during the first two years of Grant's term they were increased to $18,709,472 as appears from official reports. In this single item of appropriations the increase has been nearly six millions. Is it any wonder the people are calling for reform when the cost of the executive department, compared with its predecessor, is growing at the rate of three millions annually? This is in a certain sense a personal expenditure. It is time to shut down on such needless waste.

Judge Stephenson has been named by Col. Robertson, who is in New York. The case is a beauty.

Fraud in the Freedmen's Bureau.

A Washington dispatch says:

The investigations of the affairs of the Freedmen's Bureau by the officers of the War Department has already resulted in the discovery of gross irregularities. Among the first items inquired into was that in relation to the hospital fund. A year ago Congress appropriated $75,000, to be used exclusively for hospital purposes. The officers of the bureau, however, instead of keeping it separate lumped the amount with the other funds of the bureau and used the whole for general purposes, including the exercises of Howard university. The result is that the hospital fund cannot be accounted for. It has also been ascertained that the hospital owes $20,000 to the commissary department for supplies furnished. This should all have been paid out of the fund above referred to. In view of this discovery the department officials will scrutinize all items very closely before they will accept the control of the bureau from Gen. Howard and his colleagues.

Shop a Liddle.

From Jefferson Co. (Wis.) Union.
A worthy old Dutchman in this county, some years ago—as we are told—was presented by his spouse with a fine son. This tickled Hans and he said, "Katrine, dat is good!" The next time the good wife laid before him astonished gaze a lassy pair of twins. "Vell," he said, "dat was petter as der oder dimer. I thinks more ash ten glass beer on dat!" But the old lady had recovered her strength for one grand coup d'etat, and completing demolished Hans by giving birth to triplets. This was too much even for Dutch patience, and as Hans "shpoke mit his moust such a liddle," "Mine Gott, Katrine! Vot ish the matter on you? Petter you shop dis piness 'fore der come more ash a village full. I got's ouff mit such tam foolishness."

Letter From Horace Greeley.

The Hartford (Conn.) Times publishes the following from a private letter to a gentleman in that city:
"I have no possible claim to Democratic support and never made any. The Democrats will of course, be governed by the consideration of their own interest. It is not now probable that they should be influenced in making their decision by any consideration personal to myself, and if they should be, I do not desire it. Hence I have said nothing to any Democrat unless he first addressed me, and even then I have gone no further than to say that if I should be elected I would treat all those who supported me alike, not asking whether they had been in the past Republicans or Democrats. Yours,
"HORACE GREELEY."

Just before every election, when a radical officeholder wants to perpetuate himself, he goes around among the boys who carried muskets, tells them what grand, magnificent fellows they were for going into the field while he stayed comfortably at home; talks largely of his sacrifices for the country, and scents them to himself, and if they should be, I do not desire it. Hence I have said nothing to any Democrat unless he first addressed me, and even then I have gone no further than to say that if I should be elected I would treat all those who supported me alike, not asking whether they had been in the past Republicans or Democrats. Yours,
"HORACE GREELEY."

The office holders begin to beg pitiously to be let off, and to hold on. When asked what has become of the public money, they insist that they have not had it. The last millions of taxes are gone, they know not where. Some one else took them, and if they could only find who they would tell the people. This is the substance of their pleading. But the people have been bled too long. They are grown suspicious, and have decided to get rid of such servants. Corruptions fester all about them, and all agree that reform alone can reach the evil. They are not going to trust the thieves to reform themselves. That has been tried too long already. A clean sweep is the only thing left, and that has been decided on.

"Long John" Wentworth, of Chicago, in a recent campaign speech, made the following trenchant reference to one of President Grant's peculiarities: "Some years ago a President of the United States did the unheard-of thing of receiving a present. When I was mayor of this city I discharged a policeman for doing that very same thing. When I was connected at one time with another institution, and one of the employees thereof received a present from his superiors, I used my influence to discharge him, and he was discharged. I made up my mind then that, while General Grant was a good soldier, he did not understand American politics, and did not appreciate the dignity of being George Washington's successor."

Mr. P. S. Gilmore has been quite ill since the Boston jubilee.

New Buildings, &c.

We have from time to time this spring and summer, given a description through the columns of the HERALD, of the various buildings erected and projected in town—to this list, we have to add this week, several new and important undertakings.

Messrs. Lincenfelser & Faber, have commenced work on the foundation of a new two-story brick building 24 x 60, to be erected on the corner lot opposite Mr. Schutz hotel building.

It will be a business building and will have an imposing front. The design is by one of the best architects of St. Paul. The cost of the same will be about $5,000.

Mr. Trapp, of Laketown has recently purchased 33 lots from Mr. Warner, and will erect a dwelling house thereon for his own use this fall.

Mr. Henry Young has also about perfected arrangements for building a store on the corner opposite Mr. Stone's store. Particulars next week.

Mr. Du Toit is also seriously contemplating building adjoining the HERALD office. It will be a business building. So goes the work bravely on.

FARM BUILDINGS.—Mr. Andreas Reiderle of this place, and Mr. Michael Gensler of this township, are both building splendid dwellings upon their farms. It is a sure sign of prosperity.

Mr. Koch is also building a small dwelling on the farm of Mr. Egler, where he will reside hereafter.

TRANSFERS.—Mr. Goldsmith of Laketown, has purchased the house and lot opposite the Moravian Academy building, of Henry Wolf for $850. Mr. G. will move into town this fall, to avail himself of the advantage of our schools, to educate his children. We cordially welcome him as a citizen of Chaska.

ACCIDENT.—Our friend James Burns, section boss, on the H. & D., met with a slight accident last Saturday that will lay him up for a week or so. James accidentally struck his foot against the sharp end of a cultivator, which left a ugly cut in his ankle. He will soon be about again.

CROPS.—The reports from all parts of the County are that the crops are as fine as ever known in this section. A large amount of winter grain, wheat and rye is already secured. The farmers are happy over the prospects of good crops which gives an impetus to all kinds of business.

—Wm. Ochs, laid upon our table a specimen of rye raised near Chaska, which is a specimen of a large field. We counted 68 kernels from one head all full and plump, we call this hard to beat.

BRICK.—We understand that Lucien Warner will soon have a new patent United States Brick machine running by steam upon his brick yard. There are several more needed. The large and increasing demand for Chaska brick, requires extra exertion on the part of our brick manufacturers and then they cannot fill the orders. Messrs. Howe & Sons are turning out daily from 80 to 35,000.

—The last of next week the H. & D. R. R. will have been completed to Young America.

Subscribe for the Herald.

CORRECTION.—The Faribault and St. Paul papers are slightly mistaken when they assert that it is the intention of Col. Baxter, to locate, either permanently or temporarily at Faribault. The Col. never contemplated anything of the kind. Moreover we could not spare the Col. from our midst—He is a too good citizen. His children are attending school at that place, that is all.

PERSONAL.—M. H. Iltis and the remainder of the Carver County delegation, to the Congressional Convention went down on Tuesday morning and returned Wednesday evening.

Mr. Lincenfelser, visited the saintly city on Wednesday.

WOOD.—Large shipments of wood by barge are being made to St. Paul. Wood is not very plenty at present.

COURT.—Judge Chatfield will hold a special term of court in this County on the 4th Tuesday of August.

THE TOUR OF EUROPE.

We have received a very interesting paper, containing a sketch of a short trip to Europe, bearing the title "A twelve days' tour in Scotland," giving a list of the principal places tourists should visit when making the trip, and furnishing many valuable suggestions to parties contemplating the "European Tour." The low price of passage tickets by the Anchor Line, viz: $120 currency for the round trip will give many an opportunity of visiting the old world, which has never before been presented by any other line of steamers.

This line is continually adding new steamers to its already extensive fleet.

GONE.—Dr. C. E. Rogers who was a resident of this place for two or three years, has been appointed surgeon to a government exploring expedition, which is to go up the Yellow Stone Valley, on the Pacific Coast. We met the Dr. in St. Paul last week and he was getting in readiness to start for Salt Lake City. He will be absent about six months. The Drs. family is in Chaska.

Dr. E. H. Lewis has been quite ill, but is now improving.

Sanish Up.—The Watertown stage team, owned by Phil Reynolds became frightened at the cars one day last week while at the Hastings depot, and ran down the hill and through town at a fearful rate, not stopping until they reached the stable, fortunately not much damage being done, and all is O. K. again.

Money to loan, enquire of How Strait & Co. bankers, Carver.

Notice.—All persons indebted to the estate of Henry Zanger, had better call and settle, or costs will be made them. Mrs. Z. is administratrix.

New potatoes are selling at 70 cents on our streets, good ones at that.

Thermometer has been at 95 and 96° in the shade nearly every day this week. Some what warm.

Going Away.—We are sorry to learn that our well known and worthy citizen, Wm. Glitschka has made full arrangements to remove to Minneapolis on the 1st of Sept. He has bought a stock of groceries and will go into business there as Mr. G., but what is our loss, is Minneapolis gain. We wish him success.

One son traveling in Europe at the public expense, while drawing pay as a Lieutenant in the regular army. Another son just sent over to do the same thing, and a daughter, Miss Nellie Grant, visiting with Queen Victoria, and proclaimed in the Court Journal as the "principal woman in all America" is the present status of the Presidential family.

Official County Paper.

CHASKA THURSDAY AUG. 1 1872.

Congressional Matters.

"During the last week Hon. Geo. W. Batchelder, the present Senator from Rice county, has received calls from gentlemen, residing in other counties, requesting him to be a candidate for Congress on the Liberal ticket for this 2d District. Mr. Batchelder has not been and is not yet in the field, but he has told his friends that if the Convention nominates him, he will accept and do all in his power to secure his election. Mr. Batchelder is one of the ablest men of the State and seems to be the first choice of the Liberal Republicans. He would certainly make an able Representative."

The above extract is taken from the Fairbault Democrat, and is decidedly cool when taken in connection with the fact, that Mr. Batchelder has been, and still is, "swinging" around the "circle" impugning every local politician there-in to support him for Congress, and send delegations favorable to his nomination to the district convention. Will the Democrat be as modest in its next issue, when advocating the claims of Mr. Batchelder?

The Proof Produced.

The recklessness with which Mr. Grant and Roscoe Cuckling accused Mr. Schurz of uttering an untruth when he told of the attempt to purchase his support of the San Domingo job, is strikingly rebuked by the unquestionable proof now published which stamps the President and the Senator from New York as unmitigated liars.

Mr. Schurz, in a letter to the N. Y. Tribune, says the letter quoted in his St. Louis speech, was addressed him by General Alfred Pleasanton, late Commissioner of Internal Revenue. It was written, says Schurz, in reply to a note from me of which I have a memorandum which reads as follows:

"Ask Pleasanton whether he remembers the conversation he had with me concerning San Domingo, in which he said that I would support the President I could have all the patronage I wanted, etc., and ask him if he was authorized by the President to do so."

Gen. Pleasanton's reply is quoted in my speech. I have since received from Gen. Pleasanton the following note:

DEAR GENERAL:—Of course I have no objection to your giving my name to the public in explanation of the facts. I would say that being a friend of the President as well as yourself, I desired you should be in good terms, and you should understand that there was no personal feelings in the way of relations with the President. Your statement is correct that the President wanted my support for his San Domingo scheme and that you could have had the patronage of the Government for giving it. That was the distinct impression the President's conversation made upon me, and I communicated it to you at the time. If the President positively denies having had such a conversation, I regret it. I may console myself with the reflection that this is the first time that any statement of mine has ever been questioned, while the President has had occasion before this to distrust the accuracy of his recollections.

Truly yours,

(Signed) A. PLEASANTON.

Tom Murphy is out in a letter. He did not exactly give Grant the Long Branch cottage. He is sure of it. What he did do was to suggest to six other parties to put up $5,000 each as a present, he making the seventh. This money—$35,000—they placed in a bank. Grant checked on the bank and bought the cottage. That was how it was. Murphy scorns the idea that it was a gift, but he makes no mention of how many of the donors besides himself were rewarded with office. He took his in the New York Custom House. If the balance of the names were known, we could tell the rest received. It can safely be inferred that they were not forgotten.

If Mr. Greeley is elected, as he will be by an overwhelming vote, he will be set by all parties such a Cabinet, and draw around him such men as the nation will place entire and implicit confidence in. Horace Greeley will not be a President of a section of the country, or creature of a clique, the automaton of a cabal. He will be the President of the American people, one and indivisible.

CARL SCHURZ.

THE REFORM SPREADING.

Day by day, week by week, the great impulse of reform is spreading over the country, gaining strength as it advances, until it is as irresistible as an ocean stream. The most flattering reports come up from all sides—Maine responds to Texas, and Texas to Oregon. The people are everywhere awakening. They are joining the great Liberal army by brigades and corps. All the most intelligent and disinterested element of society is taking a part. We think here in Minnesota that we have done a grand work in the thousands who have publicly avowed themselves, as we certainly have; but we are yet far behind many other States. Even New England is responding in a way that shows how deeply the public mind is stirred, and how certainly the popular cause is gaining. Changes are so rapid as to leave no longer room for doubt. Mr. Greeley's election is already placed almost beyond contingency, and he will receive a greater electoral vote than was ever cast for any other President.

As the day of election approaches, the contest in North Carolina deepens in interest and intensity. The white vote of the State is almost a unit for Greeley. Grant has no strength outside of the colored population. To secure this last the most sordid appeals are made to ignorant passion and motives of personal corruption. Not one in five hundred can either read or write, and radicalism bases its entire hope of success on that fact. Intelligence is wholly ignored. To array the two races in opposition, and deepen the chasm between them, is the sole effort. Latest advices indicate that the scheme will fail. Nearly all the educated blacks are uniting with the white race and refuse to be made use of to inaugurate internal war. It now seems certain that the Liberal party will achieve a great victory.

Civil Service Reform is now understood and practical at Washington consists in detaching a whole army of clerks and paid retainers, whose services have mainly consisted in drawing their salaries, to go out among the people and instruct them how to vote. One or two thousand have already been packed off on this mission, and Minnesota must soon expect to see her rascally wanderers on the return. These gentry are horrible at a presumption that seeks to abolish their sinecures. They reason naturally, what have they been kept for but this very work. To lose their places is to be compelled to earn an honest living by labor, and their enthusiasm for Grant is in proportion to the grade of salary, and probability of holding onto it. How long will the people bear with such a corrupt and rotten institution? Honesty everywhere cries out against it.

One million five hundred thousand dollars is the sum levied on government clerks, custom house officers, postmasters and bankers to save the sinking fortune of Grant. Desperate as the case is, the disbursement among a few needy editors and small politicians has had the effect to make them appear good natured, and go through the party pantomime in a kind of comic earnest way. While these payments are in progress, the old rascals are winning over the honest little real opposition. His supporters are not a class of men who can be influenced by money, nor do they need that incentive to give honest work to the cause.

Radicalism is having a sorry time of it in the State of New York. No less than six members of the Grant State Committee have come out publicly for Greeley and renounced their places. Several others are expected to follow. In St. Lawrence county, which gave Mr. Lincoln over 7,000 majority, and Grant about the same, it is now conceded that Greeley will not be beaten over 1,500, and may even have a majority. Equally encouraging changes are recorded all over the State, as every section is sympathizing with the great popular uprising. The Liberals will carry New York by from 75,000 to 150,000 majority, and Pennsylvania and Indiana promise to respond in the same way. The West must hasten if it expects to compete for a share in these grand results. We owe it to honor not to be behind in such a race.

As administration takes its tone from the character of the President, who is pure, honest, and truly great he will secure these qualities about him in the selection of advisers. If venal, and corrupt, he will inevitably draw to himself his old associates. If he sets a good example the effect will be felt over the whole country. The takes presents as a consideration for places, or fills the offices with personal relatives, the evil effects of the example will spread all over the land. The standard of public virtue should be set up in the highest positions. Corruption breeds corruption, and when the head is depraved the body cannot be pure. Its effect can now be seen in the delinquencies and pecuniary every where prevailing. Put Honest Greeley in the Presidential chair, and the change will be certain and speedy.

Payments for back subscription to the Herald must be made at once. We are very much in need of money and are consequently obliged to call on all those indebted to pay up.

SUICIDE.—We learn that on Wednesday of last week, Jacob Deitz of Watertown in this County committed suicide by cutting his throat with a carving knife. Mr. Deitz was the owner and operator of the brewery in that town and for years past has been doing a very prosperous business.

There is no known reason for his committing the rash act, and it is believed it was the result of excessive drinking, which caused his insanity.

Some months ago, he attempted to kill himself in the same manner but failed, owing to a defect in the instrument he used. He had been watched since that time but his friends did not anticipate his intentions in time to prevent his death. He leaves a wife, and considerable property, but no children.

DECEASED.—We notice a large crew of men at work upon the foundation of Messrs. Linenfecker & Faber's new store. It is 60 x 24, will have a glass front and be as good if not the best building in town when completed. The brick were purchased of Messrs. How & Sons, of their best manufacture.

LIGHTNING.—During a severe thunder storm which raged here Monday afternoon the residence of F. This was struck with lightning but without any serious results. The fluid passed down the rod without damage to the building or injury to the person within, other than a slight shock.

Mr. Schurz's building was also struck about the same time, with slight damage to the roof.

The Democratic District Convention for this 2d Congressional District will meet at Farmington the 5th of Sept. next. The Liberal Republicans will meet in mass convention at the same time and place to act in connection with the Democratic convention in the nomination of a candidate for Congress.

Judge Ebinger laid upon our table a specimen of the crop of wheat he is cutting near town, the finest we ever saw. The heads are over six inches in length, well filled. It is thought it will yield from thirty five to forty bushels to the acre.

RAIL.—Herman Brinkhaus will give a picnic at Ulmer's Grove to be followed by a ball at his new building in town on the 15th of August. A general invitation is extended.

CHICKENS.—Messrs. Peck and Hecklin left this morning for the prairie on a chicken hunt, armed with dogs, guns and pistols. They are old hands at the business, and it is expected the feathers will fly.

Dr. S. D. Grant of Watertown has purchased the Drug Store and stock at that place from L. I. Lewis. The Dr. will keep a full stock and deserves a good patronage which he will receive.

The depot about which there has been so much difficulty has been finally located at Young America and not three miles from there as was expected. This is as it should be.

Depot buildings will soon be completed on the H. & D. R. R. at Benton.

County Seat Bill.

We publish this week the Bill passed at the last session of the Legislature for removal of the County seat, of this County.

It will be noticed that the bill provides for the issue of Bonds to the amount of $120,000, payable in twenty years, with 10 per cent interest, payable semi-annually. It is an easy matter to determine that to erect County buildings at Benton such is this County requires would in the end cost the County not less than thirty thousand dollars, under this bill.

It will be remembered that Chaska has voted the issue of bonds and proposed at the next meeting of the Board of Commissioners to present to them a deed of the present County buildings, giving them absolutely to the County so long as they shall be used for County purposes.

This we think will be perfectly satisfactory to the citizens and tax payers of the County, and dispense with any necessity of a vote upon the removal bill. With the heavy taxation the County has had in paying for the present buildings we do not believe the tax payers are anxious to increase without cause and necessity twenty years more of such taxation.

The Storm.

The severe rain and wind storm of last Monday evening, has occasioned a delay in the harvest, and will put the farmers to an additional expense for harvest hands, as the grain is badly lodged in some localities. Otherwise the storm did no damage in this county.

The Shakopee Mirror, established not long since, and supposed to champion the doctrines of the Democratic Liberal Republican party, has suddenly, upon indications of being weak in the knees and strongly inclined to support the Straut candidate for Congress in this district. Raise the flag at once and take a bold stand for Grant, Lee Straut and company.

Five beautiful colored pictures appear on the fashion-plate. An alphabet for marking, printed in colors, is also given. ### Soldiers in Brainerd.

From the Brainerd Tribune, July 17.

On Thursday night last, in answer to a telegram sent by Sheriff Gurrell, a detachment of seventy-five soldiers arrived from St. Paul, on the train from the east, under the command of Captain Bunker. Upon their arrival they seemed somewhat surprised at finding but some half dozen solitary redskins, getting out of town as they were called at one end, as soon as they saw the soldiers coming in at the other. They landed on the platform at the Headquarters, and after forming in rank and showing the citizens what they knew about Indian fighting, marched, four abreast, to Bly's Hall, where they took up their quarters for the night. The next (Friday) morning, fifty of the detachment returned to St. Paul, and the remainder are still here, awaiting further events.

Episode, Thrilling and Interesting at Saratoga.

Saratoga, July 20, Correspondence of the N. Y. World.

A somewhat singular episode of real life occurred on the piazza of the Union Hotel the afternoon of the great race. A somewhat noted woman, formerly a singer of some prominence, while walking with her present husband, chanced to pass in her promenade directly between two of her former husbands. The three men, each of whom had loved the same woman, and who hated each other mortally, glanced at each other for a moment, the woman, in her beauty, her diamonds, and her airy summer dress, eyed all three curiously; there was a momentary pause, then the lady and her escort resumed their walk, the other men stepped forth in diverging directions, and the episode was over. There are ever and anon strange meetings at Saratoga.

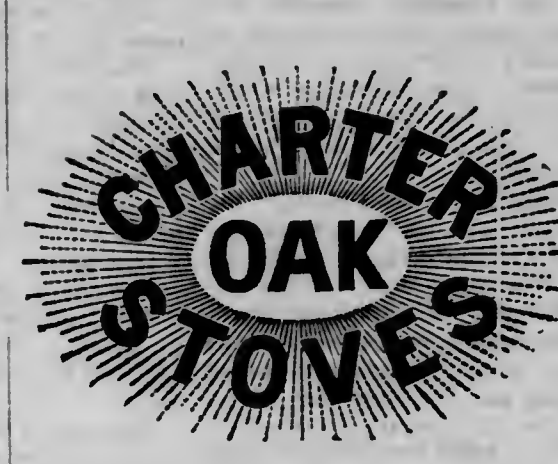

Felix A. Vincent, a comedian, was shot and killed, a few days ago, at New Orleans, in a saloon brawl.

SOCIAL HOP.

We had the pleasure of attending a social hop, on Wednesday evening last, in this village, gotten up and managed by Bruk & Willis, and which was a very pleasant affair in every particular. Shakopee, Carver and Chaska being largely represented.

The music was furnished by Sidwell's string band of Minneapolis and was excellent. The thrills of those present are certainly due to the making of the night. We hope some of our citizens will see the propriety of keeping the thing up.
